Polar Exploration Books

Catalogue: ZATZ

Welcome to our latest polar catalogue. We have now reached the end of the alphabet and there is not a lot of choice for letter Z ! However, I have chosen Daniel Zatz who, in 1980/81, was in charge of the Admirante Brown Argentine Antarctic base in Paradise Harbour...which I was lucky enough to visit in 2014.

There are separate Arctic and Antarctic sections in this catalogue; and sections on polar ephemera and polar postcards as follows:

- Pages 4 to 25 Antarctic Books
- Pages 26 to 39 Arctic Books
- Pages 40 to 45 Polar Ephemera and Postcards

Also, I have grouped the listing of some books relating to Sir Douglas Mawson (page 12) Captain Scott (pages 16 to 18), Sir Ernest Shackleton (pages 19 to 22), Sir John Franklin (pages 28 and 29) and Fridtjof Nansen (page33). This catalogue can also be viewed on our website www.kingsbridgebooks.co.uk

If the book you are looking for is not in this catalogue, then please get in touch as we do have many other books (and items of ephemera) not listed here. Please let us know if you would like more details about the content or condition of any of the books. Images can be emailed if required.

Happy hunting, and all the best for a happy and healthy 2024.

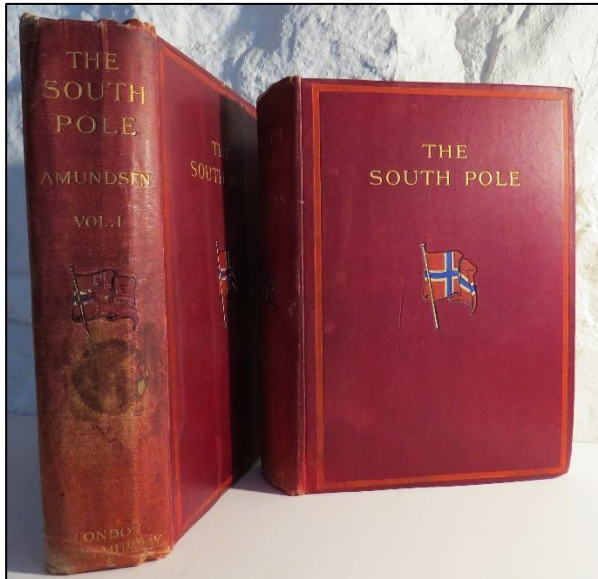

Paul Davies

* Many books sell very quickly therefore so it is best to ring or email straight away, then Andrea or I can reserve them for you.

* Because of the costs involved, we regret that if you do not place an order after receiving three issues of our catalogue we will no longer be able to send it to you, unless you specifically ask for it.

'Very Scarce' Rosove 291.A2 £1,750

Vol III is the book of the original single issues of the broadsheets produced at Cape Evans to amuse the men on the Terra Nova Expedition. Cherry Garrard was the editor and typist and Wilson the main illustrator. The first issue was presented on Midwinter's Day 1911, the second on 8 September and the third on 15 October. The content included poetry, humorous articles illustrations of sledging flags and caricatures. Includes Wilson's moving poem 'The Barrier Silence' and Ponting's hilarious tongue twister 'The Sleeping Bag'.

8vo (190 x 123mm.), viii, 152pp.+ 8pp adverts large folding map in FACSIMILE, 8 wood-engraved plates, original pictorial dark blue cloth Skilfully rebacked with original endpapers. INSCRIBED BY THE AUTHOR.

In June 1875, Frederick George Innes-Lillingston (1849-1904) set out for the Arctic aboard Pandora, a steam yacht captained by the seasoned polar explorer Allen Young (1827-1915). In this, the first of two voyages north, Young sought to make the north-west passage. His lieutenant Innes-Lillingston published this short account in 1876. It follows the voyage through to Peel Strait, where Young was forced to turn back in the face of heavy ice. On the journey home, the Pandora picked up the dispatches of the expedition under George Nares that was attempting to reach the North Pole. Conveying both the thrill and difficulty of the endeavour, this narrative provides a highly readable account of seafaring in extreme conditions.

205 Nares, Capt Sir GS Narrative of a Voyage to the Polar Sea during 1875-6 in HMS ships 'Alert' and 'Discovery' with notes on Natural History Sampson Low 1878 third edition (same year as first) two volumes 395+378 pp and adverts Six mounted real sepia photographs, seven full page illustrations, two folding maps (one in facsimile). Original publishers green cloth decorated in black and gilt. Firm binding resewn and rebacked with original spines. £525

An account of the last major British Arctic Expedition and the first since the Franklin Search Expeditions of the 1850s. The aim was to reach the North Pole by way of NW Greenland. The Alert attained a new Farthest North and much scientific work was carried out. The expedition was badly affected by scurvy and was forced to return. This account is enhanced by the inclusion of six original photographs.

£2,250

Only the first edition of this book has all the aquatint plates and charts. Account of expedition which sailed along Greenland's west coast into Baffin's Bay encountering 'Arctic Highlanders' (Eskimos) for the first time. Assuming that Lancaster Sound was surrounded by land and fooled by a superior mirage, Ross turned south. A decision criticized by Parry, captain of the ship Alexander, who suspected Lancaster Sound was the route to the NW Passage and who later led a highly successful expedition deep into the Sound.
